DESCRIPTION:

The RSAR ski bus chaperone volunteer position is one of those unique positions that is not associated with PTSA or RSAR's academic programming.

This position is recommended and recruited by our staff and PTSA board here at RSAR. Students are invited to participate in a student ski program called WEBBSKI, owned and operated by Jim and Judy Webb.

Information regarding the program and registration is put out through the Raven Review in Late October early November; however, Students that have enrolled in the program will receive information in their personal mail previous to the Raven Review.

For those interested in this program or volunteer chaperone position can contact Judy Webb at judy_webb@hotmail.com or (206) 782-5641.
